

The Choice of Becoming Quantum!

Reaching beyond the Reflection into the Unknown to Discover the Depths

Life's Veils

"A human being is a part of a whole, called by us universe, a part limited in time and space. He experiences himself, his thoughts and feelings as something separated from the rest... a kind of optical delusion of his consciousness. This delusion is a kind of prison for us, restricting us to our personal desires and to affection for a few persons nearest to us. Our task must be to free ourselves from this prison by widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature in its beauty."

- Albert Einstein

Life is full of veils, and we actually create the stage of life in which we choose to live. The process of evolving and growing is a 'choice of development' to go beyond the current limitations of our defined world. Though there are quantum leaps through inspirations that change our world radically, mostly it's the gradual process we call life. When we are confronted with challenges, we either embrace these times as a chance to grow and stretch beyond the current, or we continue on the same path creating the same dynamics to repeat over and over again on an endless cycle. I call these times 'life lessons.' When the opportunities are presented to take on a new spirit and reach a new level, veils are lifted and we evolve with the new vision and insight into our current circumstance. Life takes on new meaning and the depth grows as we grow. We embrace more and more of our true multidimensional nature. We expand the very nature of our being.

Becoming quantum is not of the linear flat world. In fact, our essence is not of this world. We are in this world. Being quantum and living in the quantum world is multidimensional. Our accepted ways of functioning in today's world are the actual limitations to understanding this quantum existence. The quantum is a new way of experiencing this dimension that is beyond our current understanding and teaching. We cannot see or understand the quantum with the old eyes of the linear. We need to step outside ourselves and see all of life from a new and higher place.

Ever Expanding Life Lessons as the Ultimate Experiences of Expression

Innately some naturally operate in this way: where life presents obstacles for us to navigate and grow to a greater state of being, Life Lessons. These challenges allow us to evolve and purify our definition of self and life.

Our world is in the process of a Quantum Leap in consciousness which is stretching us to take on a new superposition within our core being. To calmly move through 'this current time' is to be centrally located in the self with all energies open and flowing. This deep rooted position allows the raging energies of transition to flow freely and not disrupt our position.

Many of the new children are wired with this capacity. Others have come here to pave the way and forge a new path for this unmapped direction. Yet some have no comprehension of what any of this means. All is okay. We are all right where we are supposed to be, for all the right reasons. The question is what are we going to do from here on out.

"Consciousness, by its very nature, consciousness is quantum. The Human brain was designed to think quantumly. It is only through logic and intellectual balance that biological synapse becomes linear....Take a look at the autistic Human Being. Here is a Human Being who has an attribute where something is seemingly missing. Perhaps you've been around certain kinds of those autistic consciousnesses? Then you know what it is that they lack. It is the construct of linearity. For an autistic mind is one who does not understand linearity and is always trying to grasp order and symmetry. He is desperately trying to build a construct around his consciousness so he can make sense of the world. The truth is that he is far more quantum than you are! Did you ever think of that?" Kyron

With the work of quantum physicists, scientists, historians, religious leaders, educators and researchers in many fields and along with ancient prophecies, we are realizing this is a vital time of change and convergence. Though we in this dimension (by definition) being trapped by our linear, critical capacity cannot make all our known knowledge line up and be clear in a coherent way. The limitations of this dimension make the missing links hard to pin down and understand. When we open our minds to the quantum level, we see the connections clearly coming from many directions. I call this Multidimensional Quantum Development. In my mind, clearly and simply I understand this quantum way of being. In the world through my daily experiences, I see the quantum patterns repeating over and over again. Only trying to put words to my thoughts do I find myself short in being able to clearly state and present exactly what I see and know?

Becoming Quantum

Describing the Quantum State is quite the ordeal. I have tried for over twenty years. Only now with the thinning of veils and changing energies can my linear mind wrap itself around the truest and clearest visions of this process within the limitations of our current methods of thought and languages. I see this process at the quantum level being in a connected state with our multidimensional nature. Here the experience and expression is moving in and out like breathing through the central core. The spinning vortex moves up and down simultaneously. This free flowing energy is simulating all information through our core into the great expanse of all, and then back out into this world. This energy travels like the strands of DNA double helix spinning in-out and back-forth through the multi-levels of our filters of discernment, contemplation, incorporation and rejection regarding every aspect of our life. This multi-level, multi-faceted process works within our dimension and through all the other dimensions, operating and functioning with all at the moment of NOW, the alpha and the omega.

Empowering the Quantum Experience

In its ultimate beauty and elegance, this MQD process takes the current circumstances, a slice of time and space at a particular stage, and develops that moment as far as needed. Then on a impulse calls forth rest, a time to let all sit until the rest lines up perfectly fitting. At the right time, the fruits of labor come forth in full revelation. Similar to planting a seed through the preparation of the field and all the care needed to grow a 'fruit producing plant.' With time and care, this process becomes a skill that more readily produces all we need. After all the initial hard work, time and patience is needed to synchronistically bring forth the fruit. Working in tandem with the elements of nature (rain, soil, bugs, seed, sunshine, warmth, care, etc.), the abundance of the universe is produced. Though a watchful eye is needed to ensure the fruits can be produced. The continual care and nursing allows for needed change to be implemented in order to keep the process moving forward. The emotions of impatiently desiring of 'now,' 'fear of mishaps,' preset mind of what 'should be' and 'disregard of care' do not hasten this process. Actually these 'mind tricks' slow or worsen the process through souring and spoiling the fruits. The emotions of joy, happiness, expectant fulfillment empower the fruitful nature of the seeds being sowed. This is why the emotions of love, compassion and joy are so very powerful. They are the tools of this dimension that reach greater potentials. The higher frequencies resonate through all bringing forth the highest and best good in all. There harmonic vibrations working together create faster and faster than their opposites slower and lower resonating frequencies of anger, hatred and frustration.

Living as Multidimensional Quantum Beings

Becoming Quantum is an active process that works on many levels with many factors all at once. The key is to continually clean, clear and reorganize to keep the process running smoothly with its fullest of potentials.

From my position Life uses the Life Lessons as this filtering process to incorporate all that keeps us evolving and expanding and removes all that does not sit well, agree or is opposed to' all that we are' and 'all that we are doing.'

The 'rational intellectual mind' is linear by definition of logic and is tied to the constraints of this dimension. The mind tracks on a logical progression of time and space. The multidimensional mind stretches beyond these limitations. To share further, time being linear and only moving forward puts the constraint of critical evaluation progress being only a 'snap shot' or 'slice of time and space.' This limiting evaluation tool compares one thing to another in its duality causing a shortsighted judgment of pass-fail, good-bad, better-worse, and so on. This time constraint and blind judgment places a factor of fear that the experience and expression with in this dimension will not pass, be 'good enough' or 'right' for the considerations for the moment, the 'slice' or 'snap shot.'

Navigating all Experiences at the Multidimensional Quantum Level

The Quantum is of God and is God. It is the Alpha and the Omega. It encompasses all and is all. My personal viewpoint with my understanding of MQD shows that the process of 'who we are' and 'what we do' is the building blocks of our soul, our particular position, within this experience. When we are operating at this quantum level, we focus on that which we are attuned to pay attention at any given moment. Then the moment we understand it's time to let it be and 'let it rest.' We move on as we are called onto other things. From the outside linear, critical evaluation this seems unrelated, incoherent and scattered. From the central point of MQD, the realization embraces the building process as continual and perfect in its essence. Focusing as needed tends the growth and resting is being quantum. When this process is optimized and functioning at its highest levels, the path on the journey opens as we need a place to put our feet. Ultimately this working is in conjunction with the universe and all that is. The clearer our harmonic vibrational frequencies are with our awareness of our internal and external environments, the smoother the journey.

Multidimensional Quantum experience is realizing that at our core we are 'energetic beings of light' like all else in our experience. This is the quantum matrix that the spoon does not exist. These bio-suits that we call our human bodies are here to help us navigate this dimension. We are not these suits we adorn. We are not our bodies. They are vehicles here to help us within this dimension. Using them as tools to expand our beings here is embracing our navigational guidance system. When our 'awareness is engaged and turned on' we respond to our inner and outer world from our quantum essence. Understanding our bio-suit's response at any moment is to understand our navigational guidance system. Through our insight of our guidance system and our environment, we gain power that allows us to adjust our bio-suit to create what we desire. This ebb and flow is what we call life. Our emotions empower our life. What we 'focus on' and 'give power to' enhances the process and actualizes in our world. Realizing that our emotions have vibrational frequencies, we can look at our responses from a whole new level. Negative emotions are on the lower end of the frequencies, slow or muddies up the process of receiving what we are longing to obtain. Positive emotions vibrate at a higher level, and bring forth a clearer and stronger path for what we are seeking. The harmony of our being creates when it is cleanly symphonizing our experience and enhancing our expressional abilities to navigate within this dimension.

Utilizing our Innate Powers

When we now evaluate 'what we do,' not from the limitations of time within this dimension and we do not see ourselves as 'emotional beings that need to act rationally within a logical sequence,' we start to open ourselves into the Multidimensional Quantum world. Quantum Physicists will state that the quantum operates on different level with different rules than our material linear world.

Being Quantum is a choice. We have the power to choose how we operate: what we think, believe, experience and do with all that we are and have. We do not 'have to accept' what others put onto us. We are not limited or ultimately controlled by our genetics, our environment or our minds. We do not 'have to fit into' this dimension or 'fit into' any person's personal viewpoint. Each of us like any fractal which has its unique position and experience of all other positions that is different from all other positions, called a super position. The observation from another point is only to be used as a tool to help sharpen our personal experience or expression. This has nothing to do with denying or discrediting the others experience. Actually just the opposite it confirms or helps to define our own position more clearly. Our aligned and balanced quantum operation takes this information from the outside, evaluates it and either incorporates or disregards the information as part of our expanding evolution. Being out of center allows the external to throw us from here to there causing a reduction, not expansion of our being and our growth.

Being Quantum is being energized, harmonized and activated at our core, which is our Multidimensional Quantum level. From this superposition, our navigation in life is from the strongest force of stability and capability to navigate all that we encounter. This connected state allows for the clearest discernment and ability to process all information and situations from that Quantum level. The abilities, the access, the information, and the transformation are instantaneously possible and achieved. Complete navigation is possible like walking through fire, walking on water, parting the seas or moving mountains. The linear material understanding limits our access to our Quantum core and keeps our abilities stunted. Our growth is stifled. Believing we are our bio-suits and our emotions are only to be controlled, disconnects us from our greater abilities.

We need to stretch beyond...

The Multidimensional Quantum Way

When we open ourselves up to this Multidimensional Quantum way of living, we live our life in a completely different manner. We become freer and have a greater ability to live in 'the now.' The future 'fears of failure' no longer keep us locked into a particular path. We become open to utilizing all the opportunities that present themselves to the fullest potential. We embrace our experiences as moments to become closer to our truest beings operating from our greatest position in this dimension. The tools of the Quantum become more and more accessible and our ability to navigate becomes easier and easier as circumstances arise. The more we respond to this innate internal call; we realize that each step lays the preparation for another at some point down our journey. We let go more and more of the pass-fail of the fear-based model and embrace the faith that all we do plays a role in our greater experience. The joy we feel when at some point down the road when we see that all the work of the past fits perfectly into the current spring boarding our abilities to use this format, Quantum Living, time and time again.

This process is self evolving and expanding in nature. The journey allows us to use our intellectual critical mind as a tool instead of being limited by its linear constraints as a slave is to a master. Comparable to emotions, our mind works in conjunction as a tool for guidance and furthering our development along the process we call life.

Our belief that 'we need to be something' or 'do something' to reach our fullest potential, shapes our journey. The Quantum understanding is that 'we are' all that we need. By energizing, harmonizing and activating our Quantum Super Position, we are actualizing this experience and expression into its fullest and ultimate power.

Ultimately the Journey is Solo

No one can explain this process to you. This is a self realizing process that through the guidance of others we accept or reject any information and circumstance to further our own position in this fractal dimension of the Ultimate. By opening ourselves to the Multidimensional Quantum experience, we reach beyond our known limitations to realize more of 'what and who we are.' Our energetic magnetic selves are drawn or repelled for reasons... learn to use this bio-suit with all its navigational tools to embrace the brilliance of how well equipped you are for this dimension. You are not less than what you need to be. You are exactly where you need to be with all that you need to reach your fullest self.

Life is in your own hands. Realize you create what you give power to. Where are you putting your energy in during each moment of your experience and your expression?

Open your eyes. Lift the veils. Enter the Quantum World.

We can choose what we create. We create all that is. Enjoy the journey right now and from here on out! Welcome!

Deborah Sue Pomeroy Reckmeyer lives in Northern Virginia with her husband and children. She works from home on a variety of projects ranging from consulting to supporting authentic living and conscious creation. She is developing a host of websites dedicated to bringing people and needed resources together so that each can embrace their personal power by 'doing their own research' and taking personal responsibility in their own lives.

Deborah has been called a philosopher, a visionary, a teacher, a healer, a prophet, a muse, a mentor, a friend, a wife, a mother, a sister and a daughter. Actually she is a spiritual being of light energy experiencing and expressing herself imperfectly through her limiting bio-suit that does not fit her free spirit within this dimension, like everyone else.

Deborah lives in the broken world with the rest of us. She, as others do, expresses her vision with her wisdoms in today's culture. She has studied and researched science, physics, the language of math, medicine, healing, philosophy, history (ancient origins & myths), psychology, education, teaching, human development, animal training and many other pursuits. Each falls short from the vision that Deborah holds. Plainly life does not work. Many would say that Deborah has failed to fit into the current system of this dimension. Deborah would say that the current system has failed to work (not only for herself), and she is dedicated to her part in forging the new way that will bring forth a world that works for all. Deborah is currently pursuing many esoteric teachings to further her personal evolution and expansion.
