

HOPE WON | ...REMEMBER WE are the ONES!

by Deborah Sue Pomeroy Reckmeyer

November 2008

History was made the other night when HOPE WON.

Millions in our country and around the world came together and worked side by side to bring about an amazing change that no one believed was possible. The issue of race that has been present in our culture since its conception is now a non issue. The gauntlet of our country has been handed to a new generation. This new era is one of hope and untold possibilities that stems from inspirations and aspirations. The American Dream is alive and well. Americans on a mission can achieve great things.

No matter what side of the aisle we are on, this is where we are. The choice is ours what we do from here. Now that we are here, we are standing in this place of great change and this moment is just the beginning. This is the time to embrace and dedicate ourselves to the future. This includes each of us taking responsibilities and putting forth our best actions that will bring about change we need so desperately in our country.

BUT how do we do this? The real fact is that no one can do this for us and this will not happen by itself. In the past we let our leaders lead and we just followed. When we disagreed with the leaders we were angry and plotted a way to 'take back' our world. This division has obviously not worked in the past and has only has spiraled the world to a devastating low. There is another way.

The truth is that people can inspire us to greater heights to embrace a broader vision that is filled with more possibilities, but they cannot bring about the change we need in this world. We, each of us, have to build our future from the bottom up. We are only as great as our weakest link. We need to let go of the old way of looking outward for change and becoming divided more and more if life is not how we expect it to be. Each of us let go looking out into the world for change and become the change we need.

We know where our world stands and it looks very dark and everyone is scrambling to find a way to brighten the future. But where do we stand? Is our house in order? Are our lives in order? What secrets are we hiding deep in our soul? Are we living as we believe? What we believe, is it true? What is our agenda? What is our motivating basis for our actions, fear or inspiration? What are tools are we using to navigate the choices we make in life? Are we doing the best we can in our own lives? What can we do better?

It is time to clean house. Rid ourselves of the corruption that lives in our soul. Align who we are and who we want to be. Create the life and the world we want to live in.

Once we are personally standing on stronger ground, then we can turn to our relations. When we look beyond the division and stretch beyond the negative in-fighting, we can rededicate our lives to working together. We can be different and work together on a common goal. Through being united America we can achieve more - faster and do greater things. We can be a great America again.

This is not a time to sit back and wait to see what happens. This is not a time to become bitter and cling to old ideals and methods. This is not a time to believe that history will repeat itself and we are all doomed to fail because of one thing or another.

This is a time for each of us to act to make sure that 'YES, we can!' Yes, we can change our country. Yes, we can build a new future. Yes, we can ensure that all Americans have the opportunity for the American dream. Yes, we can achieve our inalienable rights. Yes, we can realize life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness that our fore fathers drafted for our future. Yes, we can reach beyond everything we know and bring about wonders we don't even see!

Right now we need to return to our basic foundation and rebuild every aspect of life to secure a strong future. This means that each of us needs to take responsibility for our lives and our actions. We need to believe once again that we have the power to create a new country. We have the power to build a better life. We have the power to ensure the futures of our children. We can work hard to this end. We can unite our visions to find solutions that work for the good of the all. We can rebuild our infrastructure, our schools our health system and the lives of every individual in this great nation. We can be the beacon on the hill that spreads light around this world.

This starts here and now, each day and every step. Looking forward and keeping our eyes on our beliefs. We don't need a 'savior.' We need to rise up and find our own strength individually and together things will bring the change we seek. And, yes, we can. We can achieve great things! This is America! We need to strive for all that we hold dear and sacred!

Keep the faith and stay positive! We are creating our world. It's a wonderful time to be alive!

Deborah Sue Pomeroy Reckmeyer lives in Northern Virginia with her husband and children. She works from home on a variety of projects ranging from consulting to supporting authentic living and conscious creation. She is developing a host of websites dedicated to bringing people and needed resources together so that each can embrace their personal power by 'doing their own research' and taking personal responsibility in their own lives.

Deborah has been called a philosopher, a visionary, a teacher, a healer, a prophet, a muse, a mentor, a friend, a wife, a mother, a sister and a daughter. Actually she is a spiritual being of light energy experiencing and expressing herself imperfectly through her limiting bio-suit that does not fit her free spirit within this dimension, like everyone else.

Deborah lives in the broken world with the rest of us. She, as others do, expresses her vision with her wisdoms in today's culture. She has studied and researched science, physics, the language of math, medicine, healing, philosophy, history (ancient origins & myths), psychology, education, teaching, human development, animal training and many other pursuits. Each falls short from the vision that Deborah holds. Plainly life does not work. Many would say that Deborah has failed to fit into the current system of this dimension. Deborah would say that the current system has failed to work (not only for herself), and she is dedicated to her part in forging the new way that will bring forth a world that works for all. Deborah is currently pursuing many esoteric teachings to further her personal evolution and expansion.
