MULTIDIMENSIONAL QUANTUM DEVELOPMENT - Mastering Authentic Spiritual Awakening | DSPR

Multidimensional Quantum Development aligns the multidimensional nature at all levels of existence to master our out-of-balance physical and mind bodies of existence into a multi-level experience into one holistic body composed of our physical body, our mind (intellectual & emotional) body, our energetic body, our intuitive body, and our divine body. By healing and uniting all our bodies into one holistic body, we can become aligned, balanced, fine tuned, connected and activated to our source energy. Our energy can spiral upward and spiral downward between the multidimensions. This cohesive connectedness allows for full experience and expression through our unique perspectives into this dimension from the many dimensions beyond. We now are empowered to operate from our full energetic light bodies through the navigational system of our multi-level holistic bodies to create consciously and live authentically in this human experience.

MULTIDIMENSIONAL QUANTUM DEVELOPMENT

Mastering Authentic Spiritual Awakening through the Energetic

Spiral Connectedness.

4 LEVELS OF MASTERY in the HUMAN EXPERIENCE

Activating the Light Body Energy through the upward circular spiral

1. Focused Intention

When we awaken enough to desire and want to will our souls within this dimension, we learn to master our intentions and focus them no matter the circumstance. Life allows us to encounter a variety of human experiences to prepare us and make us 'ready' to lead the life we contracted to experience and express.

2. Beingness

When we learn to listen and be silent in our world, we can hear the messages of the universe. This begins by seeing the chatter of our mind and the minds will to rule our being. Gently seeing we learn to silence the chatter. The silence allows the space to connect to the universe and to hear all that is.

3. Remembering

When we remember that there is more, we begin to question and see beyond the limited perspectives presented in our illusionary world. The veils lift and we allow our vision to move beyond the current into our multidimensional existence. We allow the experience at multi-levels in this dimension and through our multi-level connectedness we grow into our multidimensional nature. This remembering brings connected compassion and reverence for all perspectives, experiences and expressions.

4. Acting In Faith

When we remember that there is more than what our limited eyes see; when we have learn that we are connected and in communication with more than this world; when we work to align and use our bio-suit from our light body knowing that we are empowered to take on things that we cannot see in this realm, yet we are willing to risk all we are to meet challenges as they arrive.

DIMENSION OF POWER

Tapping into Source Energy with the Downward Circular Spiral

This is where we have mastered our light body activation and have navigated our multidimensional quantum development to 'be ready' in this human experience to tap into our ultimate dimensions of power through source energy. With our personal activation through our alignment and connectedness, we can operate in this dimension through all our levels of expression from a light body energy that is both multidimensional and authentic. Our bio-suit and the life we create from our unique perspective become a direct authentic experience expression from beyond our dimension. This empowerment from source energy allows us to function as a conscious creator with focused intention.
