by Deborah Sue Pomeroy Reckmeyer

Dedication

These times are dedicated to all those on the journey to restore the natural order of things beyond the current limitations within our world. Thank you for the continued efforts even when times appear so dark with no spark of light to lead their footsteps. The journey has not been made in vain. The venture has riled others to step out beyond their sight into the unknown to unravel the webs of complication to weave our way home! The joint efforts have brought the thresholds beyond the expected into the realm of divine miracles.

NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR:

This work has been developed not to give answers or encourage people to follow. This work is here to guide those hearing the call to a new level within their own lives and their own journey.

The family of websites created through Thrive Right Now represents the concept of the hyper dimensional Metatron's cube which is ever changing depending on the perspective in the ever evolving rotation of life. The cube cannot give you answers, only momentary points of view.

The observer coming into the cube is the one that changes the cube dependent on the current state of being. The many perspectives are revealed differently as the individual evolves in being and grows in understanding. Veils of different dimensions are revealed.

The key to open the necessary path at the moment is reliant on the perspective of the journeyman, and the location within the specific time and space. The codex is within the hero of the journey itself, meaning that life itself is the codex of the soul's journey. By 'knowing thyself' the path is discovered and all the moves are played to the fullest potentials.

Understanding the 'lay of the land' and the 'rules of the game' are vital in maneuvering through this dimension of time and space. We have been adrift with no map or compass for way too long. To rise above the challenge and reach the chalice, our viewpoint must become hyper dimensional in embracing the shadows of the many dimensions beyond our current sight.

This process is unlearning the limited nature of our material understanding to stretch into the quantum flux of possibilities. This is not a process of forcing the experience, but instead of releasing and allowing. Through the nature of being, our abilities to 'expand beyond' are empowered into existence. The concept of 'not accepting the blindness we previously embraced' frees our mind to go beyond that which keeps us bound tightly during recent times. Releasing the stress which conjures our demons brings forth the divinity which empowers our dreams.

This moment of time is reflective of the extreme duality of the current state of the divided beings living within this realm. We live in an insane world. We have been denied the truth about our origins, our sacred languages, our innate abilities, our truest essence and all the power we possess deep in our souls.

We have been born into a time which is realizing its breaking point to push all of existence back into balance. We are the ones that have not allowed the darkness to be a burden and have refused to accept the false state as our fate. By throwing off the chains the world has placed the heavy burden of the cross on our backs. The unbearable task is being lifted. We know this is our path. The scales have tipped and the time has come for the wave to follow the forward current flow.

We will soon realize that the chains that have kept us from ourselves are finally gone and a new found freedom will allow our efforts to spring board our journeys beyond the current crisis into a new flowing stronghold within our depths. This authentic position cannot be challenged or overcome. The lie will no longer have the power to keep down the Truth.

Time is at the end. The new day has come. Take up the journey into the future.

Deborah Sue Pomeroy Reckmeyer lives in Northern Virginia with her husband and children. She works from home on a variety of projects ranging from consulting to supporting authentic living and conscious creation. She is developing a host of websites dedicated to bringing people and needed resources together so that each can embrace their personal power by 'doing their own research' and taking personal responsibility in their own lives.

Deborah has been called a philosopher, a visionary, a teacher, a healer, a prophet, a muse, a mentor, a friend, a wife, a mother, a sister and a daughter. Actually she is a spiritual being of light energy experiencing and expressing herself imperfectly through her limiting bio-suit that does not fit her free spirit within this dimension, like everyone else.

Deborah lives in the broken world with the rest of us. She, as others do, expresses her vision with her wisdoms in today's culture. She has studied and researched science, physics, the language of math, medicine, healing, philosophy, history (ancient origins & myths), psychology, education, teaching, human development, animal training and many other pursuits. Each falls short from the vision that Deborah holds. Plainly life does not work. Many would say that Deborah has failed to fit into the current system of this dimension. Deborah would say that the current system has failed to work (not only for herself), and she is dedicated to her part in forging the new way that will bring forth a world that works for all. Deborah is currently pursuing many esoteric teachings to further her personal evolution and expansion.
